Stock Exchange. This sale in Baltimore is the more appropriate because the Bank, having asked that it be taken New York Telegraph, in its financial New York Telegraph, in its financial chatter, mentioned the sale of a seat on the Washington Stock Exchange at $4,500, and then called aftention to the sale of a seat on the Montreal exchange at $30,000. Curiously enough, a Montreal man, J. M. Alfred, is behind the purchaser.

purchaser.

Another thing which makes the local brokers feel better is the fact that since this sale the price of seats on the Washington Exchange has so stiffened that it would probably be impossible now to buy a seat at less than an advance of $500 while probably much now to buy a seat at less than an average of $500, while probably much more than $5,000 would be demanded. There are no seats for sale, except possibly one, which is owned by an estate, and is not used, the other thirty-nine being in active use.

Whether the dividend rate will ever be increased, however, is a matter of much conjecture, as it is regarded as doubtful if the Public Utilities Comdoubtful if the Public Utilities Com-mission would not at once demand that some further concessions be made by the company, either in reduction in the fare, or more taxes.

A very peculiar point was raised at the meeting of the Stock Exchange Saturday by Vice President William J. Flather, of the Riggs National Bank, one which probably never faced the members of any other stock exchange in the country. That was whether, if the local stock exchange adjourned over Monday, the transactions which would normally be completed that day. and the money paid over to the buyers, would be settled. # Hints to Thrifty Buyers Cimes

Why It Pays to Buy Advertised Goods

Because the advertiser has done something to inspire confidence.

He has not only explained the value and usefulness of his product, but has put his personality and reputation behind his statements.

He can be trusted because his very business existence is at stake.

He believes in his goods to the extent of investing his capital, not only in making the goods right, but in advertising, which will not prove permanently profitable if he fails to make goodsecure repeat orders.

The advertising is not only a protection to the trade name, but it is the advertiser's guarantee of quality.

You are justified in being suspicious of unadvertised goods, because, however much confidence the dealer or manufacturer may have in them, he has not enough faith in them to spend money in telling others of their goodness. It always pays to buy advertised goods.
